

REVIVAL SERVICES

Now Being Held in the First Baptist Church.

The attendance at the revival services in the First Baptist church Sunday, at both morning and evening hours, was unusually large, the galleries and Sunday school room being used to accommodate the multitude of interested hearers.

Dr. Tyree filled the pulpit at both services. The burden of the preacher's theme at the morning hour was the neglect of parents concerning the spiritual welfare of their children. The discourse was full of wise counsel, burning eloquence and intense earnestness. It seems impossible that any father, mother or guardian who heard this masterful, searching sermon, delivered in so much love and tender solicitude, could help but arouse from their stinging lethargy, take more serious thought and be moved to greater effort in the direction of throwing safeguards around those whom God has entrusted to their care and keeping, and for whose eternal destiny they are largely responsible. It was indeed a great sermon, from a great mind, and no doubt accomplished great and lasting good.

Several persons asked to be remembered in prayer at this service. At the evening hour every available seat in the house was taken and the Sunday school room and galleries were crowded.

Dr. Tyree's theme was "Indifference to the Things of God." The preacher seemed entirely lost to himself and his surroundings, and with a far-away look, as if gathering inspiration from the very throne of God, he delivered a message the like of which has rarely, if ever, been delivered from the pulpit of that church, and it means something to say this, when it is remembered that some of the most eminent divines the State has produced have filled this pulpit. This writer has no hesitancy in making this statement. Great thoughts, couched in simple language, delivered with the zeal and intense earnestness of a dying man to a perishing people, marked the entire message. The speaker's soul seemed to fill every utterance. If this had been his last effort in the service of his Master on earth, he could, possibly, not have improved the opportunity. The large audience seemed spell-bound, electrified, and the profound silence lent added solemnity to the occasion, as the preacher in matchless eloquence unburdened his soul and declared the greatness, mercy, long-suffering, and the final justice of God. It is not the will of God that any should perish, neither will He withhold justice when all His plans and purposes have been rejected and the hour of grace passed, declared the speaker; and no sadder spectacle ever presented itself than the rebellion of a human soul against its Creator. God owned the world; every dollar in it, every industrial and commercial interest, every kind and manner of thing of which the world is composed; and every sign and condition of life God holds in the hollow of His hand. Man was made in His own image, endowed with the power of choosing Life or Death—eternal happiness or everlasting doom. No man had a lease on time or life; was debtor to God for each pulse beat and every recurring breath; and each moment of his life was God's by right. No man, however wealthy or influential, or what his social position or environment might be, was genuinely happy without the love of God permeated his being; and why man was so disinterested in his soul's salvation is a profound mystery to the Christian world. In conclusion the speaker showed the relative ages at which men generally are converted, and the corresponding percentage of those dying in their sins, proving conclusively that the preponderating number accepted Christ in youth or early manhood.

In an average Christian community the proportion of the saved and unsaved up to 20 years of age is one to one—i. e., when one is saved one is lost; from 20 to 30 years old one is saved and three are lost; from 30 to 40 one is saved and 12 are lost; from 40 to 50 one is saved and 66 are lost; from 50 to 60 one is saved and five hundred are lost; and from 60 to 70 one is saved and one thousand are lost.

Dr. Tyree asked the congregation of Christians to rise as each age was called, and his statement was clearly proven to be correct.

Several stood up for prayer at this service.

Beginning with this afternoon, a day service will be held at 3:00 o'clock during the week.

After the evening sermon the ordinance of baptism was administered by Rev. J. B. Jackson to nine candidates from the Second Baptist church, who professed conversion in the recent revival meetings held in that church.

Altogether, Sunday was a great day with the Baptists in Goldsboro. Preaching to-night at 8 o'clock.

Rheumatism

"THE PAIN KING."

Those who have ever felt its keen, cutting pains, or witnessed the intense suffering of others, know that Rheumatism is torture, and that it is rightly called "The King of Pain."

All do not suffer alike. Some are suddenly seized with the most excruciating pains, and it seems every muscle and joint in the body was being torn asunder. Others feel only occasional slight pains for weeks or months, when a sudden change in the weather or exposure to damp, chilly winds or night air brings on a fierce attack, lasting for days perhaps, and leaving the patient with a weakened constitution or crippled and deformed for all time.

An acid, polluted condition of the blood is the cause of every form and variety of Rheumatism, Muscular, Articular, Acute, Chronic, Inflammatory and Sciatic, and the blood must be purged and purified before there is an end to your aches and pains. External applications, the use of liniments and plasters, do much toward temporary relief, but such treatment does not reach the real cause or cleanse the diseased blood; but S. S. S., the greatest of all blood purifiers and tonics, does cure Rheumatism by antidoting and neutralizing the poisonous acids and building up the weak and sluggish blood. It is safe and reliable in all forms of Rheumatism. It makes the old acid blood rich, and the pain-tortured muscles and joints are relieved, the shattered nerves are made strong, and the entire system is invigorated and toned up by the use of this great vegetable remedy.

If you have Rheumatism, writers, and our physicians will furnish without charge any information desired, and we will mail free our book on Rheumatism.

Solution to puzzle No. 4, which was not solved: "Only by serving you well can we learn to serve you better. Experience has taught us that to be favored by an ever increasing patronage means more than ordinary methods, more than ordinary merchandise, more than ordinary service, restless energy, and doing as we are done by in all our dealings is the motive power—the power that brings us patronage, that holds it, that increases it.
